Simple plain in the game checkin trickle sleep fakes

They/Demonizing Christ, the famous liberal awake

Markets boom-and-bust Scarce Capital mistake

Eventually God will rebuke for the Meek

Wake up smoke and mirror news gasbag sneaks

Dish it out Team so the Children can be blessed

Good vs bad Trolls pullin' arms Just for kicks

Welcome to Armageddon sleeper dis tricks

Pablum Panic media manic

Tryin' to distract from the truth sleeper snicks

Circus mirrors took the chump bait tax break

What did they think (it was a) political play date

Now we have the villain clear as day and it's way late

Men of Perdition what a story tell it great

Outro: Peace be upon Planet Earth. This goes out to reasoning Spirit peace, that brings light to the strife, and to lift the Least. Onepeace. The (a) way to understand a strifeful leader, is to look around them in their campaign for leadership. We witnessed how "Centralization" and "Privatization" gets along famously. (also, how both don't like the press or try to create positive Freedom of Speech relationships, which creates the Spirit of Liberty)...and also, we learned that it's peace, or not peace...we can sense the Spirit of Peace and Unity. It's a Calm. And also peace to the Universal jam Band, Lighten Up. The Earth Chapter. Peace
