*Added note to express as a "Spokes-person"...(Team One Art is a refuge for many of us, so as always, our dis/critics "dissent for dissent sake" can take a knee like the rest of us, and don't worry about what skin color we are or aren't,
or any harboring of earthly separation static towards us transparent and kind souls, or using a crisis to cause division, or attempting any previous "Run game" sleeper dis loops at us...unity is most important, and we spent years trying to speak peace... just know that we won't entertain any attempts of division or oblivion, just like the other arguments of the past few decades...
the future will understand...already "wrote it off"...it's "love us or leave us alone",
"what it is, what it was, catch up with us"...peace)*

"Always a tune" is purposeful, Togetherness as useful,
Inner peace is Victory is crucial...
Choice to be a voice, choose a team, ours is truthful
Word is bond Collective Love Is Us call it blissful

Sowing seeds in this song,
WU Yellow, Red, Blue,

See the heavy channelling confusion for what it do
Trying our best, life is short, (we) put our lives into the tunes

Inevitable revealing blaming others liar loses
Ilyin is not on the team fake cabooses
Souls are "Spirit likeness" higher power infusion

1950's segregation Connell will ruin things, not wanting people to vote is evil like supremacies
Crashed the markets, sure enough, pushing new conspiracies

Hook:

Space time. Traveling together through the air.

17 seconds, Yo we care. Space time, traveling together through the air (2 times)

Outro:

Peace. Don't forget... a creative project is a heartbeat to live to.

Even a note or an email counts.

Creativity. Let's be lights like a little candle that brings light to an entire room. We know that the spirit of love and God Wins over the long term. It makes the devil look like a stupid footstool as it usually is. They think political play date electoral college games avoid reconciliation of the human species. But they play. We'll use them as a footstool.

One world. Peace.
