History of the world hundred years expulsion (strongmen of Earth are currently setting up for the 6th extinction level event, yet they think it's just their usual "life is meaningless" gas baggery...life is not meaningless of course, and as the "Natural Numerics" synchronize over time, the World will see the "larger than life story" more clearly)

Slowly over time G.O.D. teach noses

Wheat tares clearer now harvest told ya (the tares/footstool get discarded when the wheat/love is harvested)

Outro:

Peace. Like the "Psalm of life poem" it's a reminder that we are spirit and alive (life is meaningful, not meaningless like glitch flesh says. As usual, the world should wake glitch flesh Autocracies behinds up, and bring they a**es to Jesus...that is what it Shouuuuuld be to save the planet, yet God is doing it slowly and more architecturally clever as usual)...

All of us together make the story... and it's "ego where it must" but don't let the division take hold. It's a gig economy.

We need each other. Peace to "Roll with it". Way ta go Jibbs 😊🌴 and "that's it Girl, let it rip" ✨

We can all help each other.

Peace to "you can giggle".

We believe we need to spiritualize conversations about racism, not just intellectualize. Onelove. (bring children together to work in collectives towards purpose, and that's where the healing happens).

Let's be encouraged...everybody has a process through ART, its medium and structure (even a conversation or email is someone's expressive art, we love U Friends). We all know that people are the "Big Truth", and the love is exposed in the assembly. And it helps to remember that somebody maliciously causing anxiousness or worry is the devil's work. God's work is love power, and self-control. One people. peace
